

香港內科學會

THE SOCIETY OF PHYSICIANS OF HONG KONG

FOUNDED 1956

www.soPHYSICIANSHK.org

Self-study CME (CME points under application to Academy)

Answer sheet (Score 7 out of 10 to get 1 CME point)

Study Material: Medicine, History and Art

Pages 83-98, Oct (1) 2023 issue, Journal of the Society of Physicians of Hong Kong (available on the web)

Answer true or false.

1. Joanna the Mad probably suffered from bipolar disorder and morbid grief (Page 83)	T / F
2. Cardinal Cisneros was a powerful political figure in the Court of Isabel the Catholic (page 84)	T / F
3. Joanna the Mad was imprisoned for life until her death at age 75 (page 85)	T / F
4. Charles V, the Holy Roman Emperor, suffered from severe gout (page 86)	T / F
5. John of Austria was defeated by the Ottomans in the sea Battle of Lepento (page 87)	T / F
6. Alexander the Great distrusted his physician (page 89)	T / F
7. Uroscopy was a method used by surgeons in medieval days (Page 90)	T / F
8. Physicians in medieval days were depicted as well dressed, high class and respected figures (Page 91)	T / F
9. The Company of Barbers and Surgeons was formed in 1540 (page 92)	T / F
10. "The Dentist" by Gerrit van Honthorst uses 3 candles as the light source (page 95)	T / F

Study Material: One Snake or Two Snakes, the Mystery of the Medical Insignia

Pages 99-105, Oct (1) 2023 issue, Journal of the Society of Physicians of Hong Kong (available on the web)

Answer true or false.

1. The bronze snake of Moses was mounted on the Cross of Tau.	T / F
2. The Greek god Asclepius was adopted by the Romans as Asculapius.	T / F
3. Hippocrates and Galen both belonged to the cult of Asclepius.	T / F
4. The Cult of Asclepius was a persecuted group.	T / F
5. A psychopomp is one who delivers the soul of the dead to the underworld.	T / F
6. Printers adopted the caduceus as their logo because Hermes was the patron god of scribes.	T / F
7. The Marine Hospital Service adopted the caduceus on its badge because it was concerned with treating sailors, whose patron god was Hermes.	T / F
8. The logo of the Chinese Customs Department is a reminder of Western imperialism.	T / F
9. The US Army Medical Corps adopted the caduceus believing that Mercury was the patron god of doctors.	T / F
10. The caduceus originated from the olive branch carried by Roman envoys to signify truce and neutrality.	T / F

Fax to: Sandy Chung of MIMS (Fax No. 2559 6910) Enquiry: drtclam@netvigator.com

Name of Doctor (Surname first, block letters) _____

Mobile _____ Email _____

College / DH / HKMA / HKDU / HKMC _____

MCHK No. _____ Date _____

 Deadline of submission: Dec 23, 2023 (before Christmas Holiday) ***